

Wednesday

is for set up, getting to know each other, hanging with locals and other organizers, and playing soccer, frisbee, and other games....and climb trainings in afternoon!

Thursday

10:30 - 12:00	Mapping the Climate Fight	Building Sustainable Communities at the Grassroot Level	Communicating Climate Change: Seizing the Historical Moment		Climb trainings all day	FIELD TRIP TO NAHCOTTA: Pesticide use on the coast - Lunch Provided
12:00 - 1:00	Grant Writing 101	Columbia River: Ground Zero for Fossil Fuel Development in our region.	Student Strategy Session on Stopping Climate Change	Mycorestoration skillshare
LUNCH
2:00 - 3:00	Dismantling Monoculture: Tales of Ants and Economics in the Americas	The militarization of borders and the November 7th No Border Camp	Organizing in the field to save the places you love	Organic gardening in the Pacific NW	Climb trainings all day
3:00 - 4:00
BREAK
4:30 - 5:30	Kyoto, the Carbon Neutral myth, and other big problems with governments' and corporations' big plans to save us	Strategic Campaign Planing 101	Responding with Art	Culture and Lifestyles for a Post-Carbon World	Climb trainings all day	Food Systems and Climate Change
5:30 - 6:30
6:30-8:00	Dinner party with local organizers from the Lower Columbia River
8:00-9:00	Starhawk -- Climate Change and Consciousness Change
9:00-10:00	MUSIC: Ric Trinkle

Friday

10:30 - 12:00	Working across cultural boundaries	From Carbon Intensive to Carbon Ridiculous!	Global Impacts of the LNG Industry	Tools of Consciousness Change for Activists	Introduction to First Aid and Herbal First Aid		Climb trainings all day
12:00 - 1:00		The Basics of Solar Hot Water Heating

LUNCH

2:00 - 3:00	Health effects of Climate Change; Globally and locally	Coalition Building	The Economic Drivers of LNG in Oregon (Who Stands to Make Billions?)	Introduction to Permaculture		Anti-Racist Organizing for White Activists	Climb trainings all day
3:00 - 4:00	Grassroots resistance to Coal & Nukes in USA, Australia & New Zealand/Aotearoa.

BREAK

4:30 - 5:30	Fishing on the Columbia River	Alberta's Tar Sands	Solar Power (to the People)	Digging out the roots of corporate power	Water and Energy in the Northwest of Mexico: resistance and expropriation
5:30 - 6:30				AFRICOM: Militarization, the War on Terror, fossil fuel Extraction and Resistance Movements in

7:30-9:30 Dr. Alder Fuller -- Climate Change: Understanding the science & why we may be past a "tipping point" for irreversible change

8:30-9:30 MUSIC: East Valley Liberation Army (Debut performance! Featuring Nirvana's Krist Novoselic)

All attendees are strongly encouraged to attend at least one of the highlighted yellow sessions during the convergence

Saturday (Page 1/2)

10:30 - 12:00	Climate Change and War	Starting & Running a Successful Group		Losing your activist Ego	Local Organizers Perspective on LNG & Fossil Fuel Issues
12:00 - 1:00	The Beehive Design Collective	Propaganda and You: What You Need to Know to Be a Video Pirate	Last at the Table, but the First to be Cut Off? Addressing Cross Cultural Issues	Campus Organizing	Forests and Climate Change -- Forest Die-off, Carbon Sinks and What We Can Do	Natural medicine for personal and community self sufficiency	Introduction to Non-Violent Direct Action and Blockades	Climb trainings all day
LUNCH
2:00 - 3:00	The Environment as We See It: An Introduction to Environmental Racism	Corporate Campaigning: How to take on the big boys and win	Agriculture, Climate Change & Industrial Agri-fuels	Breakdance foundations	Popular Educaion & Climate Change - Training for Trainers	Stopping Fortress North America, energy infrastructure projects for corporate globalization	The Rural Urban Divide	Climb trainings all day	ABCs of Guerilla Kitchens to provide support for Actions and Campaigns
3:00 - 4:00
BREAK

All attendees are strongly encouraged to attend at least one of the highlighted yellow sessions during the convergence

SATURDAY IS CONTINUED ON THE NEXT PAGE!

Saturday (Page 1/2)

4:30 - 5:30	Potential effects of climate change in the Pacific NW with considerations for survival & adaption	Indigenous Rights, Climate Change & Weyerhaeuser	GAIA CYCLES climate crisis solutions	Climate Convergence Systems Tour - Greywater, Solar, Rocket stoves, etc.	Building broad public interest alliances to fight climate change	The Rising Tide Network: organizers against the root causes of climate change		Climb trainings all day	ABCs of Guerilla Kitchens to provide support for Actions and Campaigns (continued from 2pm block!)
5:30 - 6:30						The Organizing of the Convergence for Climate Action
7:30- 9:30	Dr. Robert Michael Pyle, The Impacts of Climate Change on Butterflies
8:30- 9:30	MUSIC: Victory and the Lads
8:30- 9:30	PERFORMANCE: The Clown House

All attendees are strongly encouraged to attend at least one of the highlighted yellow sessions during the convergence

Sunday

10:30 - 12:00	Movie: Mountain Top Removal and discussion of the movement against coal from the East Coast	Creative Activism: Theatre, Hijinks and Culture Jamming	Strategic Campaign Planning		Climb trainings all day	STARTING ON THE HOUR, EVERY HOUR: Boat tours of the Columbia River
12:00 - 1:00		Targeting the Climate Change Bankers	Action Planning for NW Students

LUNCH

2:00 - 3:00	Climate Change 101: Basics of the science & why we may be past a tipping point for irreversible change	How to Use the Media	Non-Violent Direct Action Planning 101	Advanced Blockades Training	Climb trainings all day	STARTING ON THE HOUR, EVERY HOUR: Boat tours of the Columbia River
3:00 - 4:00
BREAK
4:30 - 5:30	Nature Fun Time!
5:30 - 6:30	The Sprockettes: Promoting Sustainability Through Performance Art

7:00 - 8:00 PERFORMANCE: The Sprockettes

7:30-8:30 MUSIC: Willapa Hills

8:30-9:30 Jorge Tadeo Vargas -- Water and Energy in the Northwest of Mexico: resistance and expropriation

8:30-9:30 MUSIC: Brenna Sahatjian of Riotfolk

Monday, August 13th is the Day of Action – All details TBA until the Convergence!

➤ 7 am Monday, Bird Identification trip

MUSIC by Spruce in the evening, back at the Convergence Site.

Tuesday, August 14th is for closing celebrations.

We're still waiting for details
of the time slots for these workshops:

- Conflict Mediation
- Consensus Meetings and Facilitation
- Energy Injustice on the Klamath River

We're hoping these will happen too
(but we're not sure!)

- Jan Lundberg, Folk musician and organizer.
- Jim Page, Folk musician and organizer.
- Lloyd Marbet and Dan Meek, leaders of the successful effort to shut down the Trojan Nuclear Power Plant.
- US Energy Industry overview
- Tryon Life Community Farm
- Black Mesa and Desert Rock
- Compost 101
- Police Liaison at Protests
- Preparing for the worst: disaster response
- Yoga for Activists: How to power your activism with yoga